⚠️ Student Visa — Critical Rules

🚨 NEVER freelance on a student visa. This includes Fiverr, Upwork, Deliveroo, Uber, or any "self-employed" work. This is the #1 way students get visa violations. You must be employed by someone else.

What's allowed:

- 20 hours/week during term time (Edinburgh has track record, so this applies)
- Full-time during holidays — use summers to go hard on creative experience
- Zero-hour contracts are fine (common in theatre/venues) — you're still employed
- Work placements assessed as part of your course have no hour limit
- Minimum wage: £12.21/hr for 21+, £10/hr for 18-20. Unpaid "internships" doing worker duties are illegal

Practical tips:

- Keep a detailed spreadsheet of ALL hours across all employers
- University careers service is an underused goldmine — they have employer relationships
- Hospitality at creative venues (café at Tate, bar at Barbican) gets you in the door
- Volunteer at galleries/festivals during term → convert to paid work in holidays
- Working even 1 hour over 20hrs in term = potential visa cancellation

🏢 Creative Temping Agencies

Employed by agency = visa-legal. Good way to get into creative orgs without freelancing.

💡 Strategy & Tips

Leverage your unique profile

You ran a 550-person Anthropic-funded unconference. That's not normal for a 19/20yo. Lead with Ensemble in every application — it's your killer differentiator for event/production roles.

Student visa rules

• 20 hours/week during term time, full-time during holidays
• Most part-time/casual theatre and venue roles fit this perfectly
• Freelance writing (Dazed, etc.) is flexible by nature
• Some roles listed as "full-time" — always worth asking if they'd consider part-time

Immediate actions

This week (deadlines approaching):
• Bureau of Investigative Journalism — closes 23 Mar
• Guardian Scott Trust Bursary — closes 26 Mar
• Gallery Assistant (Ames Yavuz) — closes 26 Mar
• Bridge Theatre Box Office — closes 27 Mar
• Sadler's Wells Stage Door — closes 29 Mar
• Journo Resources intern — closes 29 Mar
• Soho Theatre Comms Assistant — closes 30 Mar
• Royal Albert Hall PA — closes 30 Mar

Next week+:
• Classics for All Events Officer — closes 8 Apr
• Young Vic Social Media — closes 13 Apr
• David McClure Fellowship — closes 31 May

No deadline:
• Pitch Dazed Digital (freelance writing)
• Apply to ATG Entertainment (rolling FOH recruitment)
• Register on Creative Access for internship alerts
• Email Pineapple Studios about reception roles

The "hidden" approach

Many of the best creative roles in London are never formally advertised. Consider:
• Walking into Housmans, Daunt Books, London Review Bookshop with your CV
• Emailing small galleries directly (not just Tate/Serpentine)
• Volunteering first at venues you love — many hire from their volunteer pool
• Attending events at Conway Hall, Swedenborg House, Newspeak House and networking
• Asking your [craft] / Ensemble network for London intros
